

'Lion' visit proves hit with kids

STUDENTS at Caboolture Montessori School are enjoying their return to class.

"It's fun at school because we don't always have to sit at desks and it's fun to make friends at school," Ruth, 5, said.

Fellow student Rebecca, 7, said: "I like writing stories because you can use different words you've never heard of before."

CROWD PLEASER: Students were treated to a performance by the Red Dragon Dance Troupe.

PHOTO: CONTRIBUTED

The school also chose to celebrate the Chinese New Year. The children were delighted that Sifu Brett Fenton and his team from the Red Dragon Dance Troupe of Red Dragon Martial Arts performed a lion dance for them in the first week of term.